Sir,

Sub: HRC No. 1542/10/32/2019 (FB)

The above case came up for hearing on 22.09.2020 before Full Bench of the Commission and on consideration, the Commission passed the following:

ORDER

Pursuant to complaint herein, notices have been issued to police officers concerned and the complainant. And their statements are recorded. However, subsequently, complainant has not attended the hearing in spite of several notices and adjournments and ultimately, the letter dated 28-11-2019 is received requesting permission to withdraw the complaint. However, pursuing the matter further and calling the parties, the P.I., Shri Hemanth Kumar has remained personally present but the complainant is not present and the written notice issued for his presence is returned on the ground of 'insufficient address'. Therefore, calls have been made on his given mobile number but even then, no response could be obtained. Under such circumstances, the complaint is closed and disposed with no recommendation.
