PRESS NOTE

A HELPLINE, with toll free No.1800-425-23333, has come into existence in the Karnataka State Human Rights Commission, with its inauguration by Smt.Meera C.Saksena, the Hon'ble acting Chairperson of the Commission, on Friday, the 6th March, 2015. Shri C.G.Hungund, the Hon'ble Member of the Commission, Smt.Madhu Sharma, the Secretary of the Commission, Shri Irannavar, the Registrar of the Commission and Shri Shivakumar, the Inspector General of Police, attached to the Commission, were present on the occasion.

With the helpline the Commission intends to reach out to persons in need of help and set right any injustices caused to them, within the legal framework and the powers vested in it.

General public, irrespective of caste, creed, gender, age or any other consideration, can make use of the helpline and access the Commission through it in getting their problems solved and sorted out.

The Commission hopes that the general public will make use of the facility, to their best advantage.

The general public can access the Commission through helpline, which is a telephone service providing advice and comfort to worried or unhappy people on the phone and the assistance and support it can offer on the issues and to ensure that the people get the right help in the right way at right time.

The Commission is also accessible through twitter (kshrc2007) which is a free social messaging service for sending and receiving short messages in real time and also through facebook (kshrc2007@gmail.com)
